Carver High School

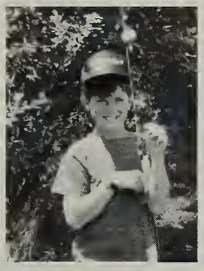
When We Were Little...

We always smiled for every picture.

We were alway perfect angels . . .

. . . well most of the time.

We learned how to get along . . .



. . . and how to dress ourselves.

1999

Where did you come from?
Arising from some dark nowhere
To confront us with the obscurity of the future
A pivotal moment in time,
A momentous turning point,
A precipice from which we may
Examine the past while placing a foot,
In the door of the twenty-first century
A year shrouded in the black of mourning;
An end, close, conclusion, finish,expiration, a death-
Of what we were,
That paves the way for the emergence of
Our true selves.
A new beginning extracted from the wreckage of the millenium;
Fresh possibilities, bright prospects-
Pandora's box, the silver lining...
This is the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow.
Buoyed up by hope, we sail forth,
Venturing into the distant horizon,
Not knowing, but that's part of the adventure,
Not fated, but that's part of the charm.
~Megan Danahy

The gymnastics team was coached by Ky Thibitot-Alexanderson in her last year here at CHS. Although the team did not have a winning season this year, with a league record of 0-10 and a non-league record of 1-10, they showed significant improvement with many of the gymnasts achieving their personal bests. The team was led by senior-captain Katie LeGrand competing all around and earning her title as a league All-Star. Senior Robin Medieros, and senior-captain Amanda Cooke both had great seasons on beam. The team's spirits were never dampened and they always rose to the occasion and did their best. The class of 1999 would like to wish the gymnastics team and its graduating seniors the best of luck next year.

Our Town

Back: Scott Harris, Tim Swan, Chris Maki, Vicky Hood, Cheryl Hastings, Ben Phinney.
Second Row: Jen Hubbard, Brittany Gale, Joe Holzman, Gina Metrano, Lora Linehan, Michelle Jerrier, Ashley Gale, Sarah Mitchell, Liz Murray.
Third Row: Jared Lyon, Donna Ciccolella, Kerri Doherty, Liz Holzman.
Front: Katie Ryan, Ben Fuller, Debbie Crosscup.

This year started out rough for the Drama Club. Until November we were without a director. Then, after our many days of searching, we were blessed with the skill and experience of Broadway actor Terry Runnels. It was a struggle getting used to a new director, and it was tough for the new director to get used to a new group of young actors. In the end Our Town was a success. The play starred: Chris Maki, Kerri Doherty, Jared Lyon, Debbie Crosscup, Ben Fuller, Michelle Jerrier, and Ben Phinney. For the spring musical we hope to preform Oliver.

Above: Beki Phinney, (Make-up and Hair) Tom Rowan, (Backstage and Lighting) and Chris Maki President and the Stage Manager) relax and bust a move before show time. Below: Tim Swan, (VP and Constable Warren) and Ben Phinney (Mr. Gibbs) wish each other luck before the curtain rises.

Katie Ryan, (Head of Make-up) creates the look for one of our many actors

The Spending Christmas with God this Year

I see the countless Christmas trees
Around the world below,
With the tiny lights, like heaven's stars
Reflecting on the snow.

The sight is so spectacular,
Please wipe away the tear,
For I'm spending Christmas
With God this year.

I hear the many Christmas songs
That people hold so dear
But the sounds of music can't compare
With the Christmas choir up here.

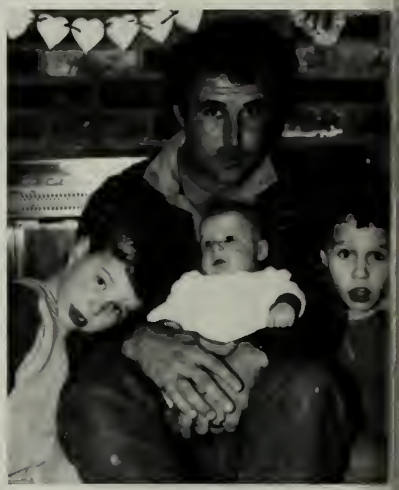
For I have no words to tell you
The joy their voices bring,
For it is beyond description
To hear as angels sing.

I know how much you miss me,
I see the pain inside your heart
For I'm spending Christmas
With God this Year.

I can't tell you of the splendor
Or the peace here in this place.
Can you just imagine Christmas
With our Maker face to face?

I'll ask him to light your spirit
As I tell Him of your love,
So then pray for one another
As you lift your eyes above.

So please let your heart be joyful
And let your spirit sing,
For I'm spending Christmas in heaven
And I'm walking with the KING!



In Loving Memory of Brian Davenport

Your Little Brother,
Jared

Mary-Kate,

Has it really been eighteen years since that windy night in November when you made your entrance into this world? It hardly seems possible! You've gone from that precious, tiny infant in our arms, to our "Pooh Bear", to a young woman in what seems to Mom and me as a "blink of an eye".

Now it is time to move on, to build a life of your own, and establish you niche in this world. High School graduation is here, and, soon you will be off to college, to a career, possibly matrimony and motherhood as well. This will be a tough time for Mom and me - since you have been such a part of our "being" for so long. Yet, we can smile knowing you have become exactly the person we hoped you would throughout the years of raising you. We hoped our daughter would be loving to others, kind, compassionate; someone with integrity, moral conviction and decency, and one possessing wit and charm. We wished for a daughter we could be proud of in all ways; a daughter that people would say we were "lucky to have". It's not often you get exactly what you want in this world, but we did. We love you sweetheart! Happy Graduation! Embrace the world, it's yours for the taking, and prepare for life's great adventure!

Love,
Mom & Dad

Jane,
Thanks for the pride and joy I've had from watching you grow and meet your dreams!

Love,
Mom

Mike Rapoza,
We are very proud. God Bless You!

Love Always,
Dad, Mom, Robin, David

Justin,
Your humor & wit has always brightened our days. Don't ever change & the world will be yours!

All our love,
Dad, Mom,
Sandi, JoJo, & Matt

Beki,
Knowing you is a bright light in our lives. We are so proud of you and love you!

Coaches: Mike Fraccalossi, Eric Foley
Record: S.S.L. 6-0

The boys team completed its fourth straight league title this year led by Senior Captains Chris Myette and Kevin Tobin. The Crusaders' dominance in the South Shore League was evident in the selection of five league All-Stars, including Myette, Tobin, Senior Bret Doyle, Senior Mike Egan, and Junior Tony Pinto. Myette finished off his career with an excellent senior year, going undefeated and breaking the school records in the mile and the 800 meter. Seniors Brett Doyle and Chad Moore continued Carver's excellent tradition of dominating the throwing events in both the shot-put and the discus. Senior Mike Egan and the Freshman sensation Ralph Frasier also turned in excellent performances in the jumps. Coach Mike Fraccalossi says that this team has surprised a lot of people this year and he is proud to be part of the continued Carver tradition of winning.

Coaches: Mr. Carey and Mr. Hanley

The Girls Track team had its best season in all of Carver High School history. They finished out the season with an undefeated league record, and their first ever league title. The victory against their Norwell rivals was the icing on the cake: 81-55. "The keys to winning the meet were winning the 4x4 and the 4x1 relays by a tenth of a second" (Mr. Carey).

Boys Tennis

This year was a rebuilding year for the boys tennis team. We set our goals at winning half, but we knew this was unrealistic. We finished our season at 6 and 14, but were very happy to upset teams such as Harwich, and pull many personal wins from our three singles players. Our doubles teams this year fluctuated, in an attempt to build the players up for next season. The tennis team will be the one to follow in the coming years, and with the expert coaching of former U.S. Open player Gary Pina, the team will progress further, and win more and more as the years go by. The team's wins this year were accumulated by South Shore League all-star Steffan Ericson, followed by Captain Bobby Leatherbee, and with many great wins by Russell Crooks. The team had a great time this year, and as a major highlight, was given the Sportsmanship Award.

Rallied behind senior captain Bill Richards, the golf team had its most successful season in Carver's short history. The team had many crushing victories and a few heartbreaking losses, falling just one game short of qualifying for the state tournament. All stars included: Pat Pollock, Chris Jerrier and senior Craig Burden. Other outstanding performances go to senior Shane Glynn, Jake Reichert, and the sophomore sensation Jason Miller
